

The Arc of Texas advocates for policy that moves Texas forward in its treatment and community-inclusion of Texans with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD).

WHAT IS ADVOCACY?

Advocacy empowers people with IDD, their families, and allies to share their stories with local, state, and federal governments. By raising awareness of challenges and needs, advocates influence policies that improve the lives of Texans with IDD.

WHAT IS THE TEXAS LEGISLATURE?

- The Texas Legislature is the state's lawmaking body, responsible for creating, amending, and repealing laws.
- The legislature has two chambers:

- Led by Speaker of the House
- 86 Republicans | 64 Democrats

SENATE: 31 MEMBERS

- Senators serve 4-Year terms

- 19 Republicans | 12 Democrats

WHAT DO TEXAS LEGISLATORS DO?

- Texas legislators write, debate, and vote on laws that affect Texans with IDD.
- Approve the state budget, deciding how money is spent.
- Listen to their constituents (the people they represent) to understand their needs and concerns.
- Serve on committees to study specific topics and recommend new laws.

WHEN DO TEXAS LEGISLATORS MEET?

- Every two years in odd-numbered years for a 140-day regular session.
- Special sessions, lasting up to 30 days, may be called by the Governor to address specific issues.

2. Committee Review: Committees study and vote on the bill.
